C. National Anthem – Council Member David Pack

Council Member David Pack performed the National Anthem

D. Welcome – Council Chair Zach Jacob

Council Chair Jacob welcomed those in attendance and thanked those in attendance. He mentioned that it's not a small thing to run for office. He felt that participating in government is a unique thing and thanked those who ran and were elected. Thanked the citizens who voted and noted that their voice matters. He noted that they would be under a spotlight and may not always agree with each other they get along, discuss, debate, and vote and move forward.

He turned the time to City Recorder Tangee Sloan to swear in newly elected Council Members.

E. Administration of the Oath of Office – City Recorder Tangee Sloan

City Recorder Tangee Sloan administered the Oath of Office to newly elected Council Members Pamela Bloom, Kelvin Green, and Kayleen Whitelock

F. Remarks by Council Members

• Council Member Pamela Bloom

Pamela Bloom expressed the honor she felt having an opportunity to serve the City of West Jordan as a Council Member. Service has always been a big part of her life and it's something she did not feel entitled to, but an opportunity to be an example. She mentioned that working to make the place she lives a better place to live in has been a theme in her life. She looked forward to getting to know the residents of the city better and encouraged others to get involved. She voiced appreciation for all those who supported her to reach this moment.

• Council Member Kelvin Green

Kelvin Green mentioned that the first time he took the oath was in 1995 and he felt it was such an important part of his life. He thanked the voters for their trust in him to be their representative. He thanked his family for their support and passed out gifts to them. Quoting Shawn Paton he said, “to do things you’ve never done before; you have to do something you’ve never done before.” He challenged the citizens of West Jordan to help the Council by doing things they’d never done before and get more involved in their community.

- Council Member Kayleen Whitelock

Kayleen Whitelock thanked all in attendance and those from the city supporting them. Got into politics because she was a PTA mom which got her involved in school board meetings, and eventually prompted her to run for City Council. She felt it an honor to serve as a Council Member for the last four years and felt the city was in a good trajectory which she wanted to continue. She felt the Council may not always agree but were always able to reach the best decision for the City. She thanked all those who had supported her and encouraged residents to reach out and interact with Council members to share what you’d have them do. She truly loves her city and thanked residents for the opportunity to continue serving as a Council Member.

G. Closing Remarks – Council Chair Zach Jacob

Council Chair Zach Jacob offered congratulations to each Council Members elected and thanked staff for putting the evening together. He looked forward to serving with the Council for the next four years and echoed the challenge for residents to reach out to the Council.

H. Adjourn

Council Member Pamela Bloom moved to adjourn the meeting. Council Member Kelvin Green seconded the motion. All voted in favor and the motion passed unanimously.

The meeting adjourned at 6:28 pm

I, Cindy Quick, hereby certify that the foregoing minutes represent an accurate summary of what occurred at the meeting held on January 3, 2022. This document constitutes the official minutes for the West Jordan City Council Meeting.
